

Co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union

PRESS RELEASE

Madrid, 7 March 2019

European Decades Project (EdUcade) of the Europe for Citizens Programme

International Conference: "2004, 15 years of the largest enlargement of the European Union"

Within the framework of the Educade project, the international conference was held, which closes the final event of the project. Participants, at local level and European level, have discussed on the challenges of the European Union with the annexation of 10 new countries, which constituted the largest extension of the history of the EU, what it has meant and the challenges that the EU faces from this date.

Participants from the partner countries (Greece, Bulgaria, Germany, Poland, Spain and Serbia) and local participants (students from the Salesianos Estrecho School) shared the meaning of their membership of the EU and of each of these countries also they all made a presentation on main contributions of each country to Europe.

The Conference was inaugurated by Augusto Paramio, responsible for the European Citizenship Point of the Ministry of culture and sport; Oscar Vázquez, Director of Salesianos School and Pablo Aledo, General Director at Altius Foundation.

At the final event, EdUcade project wanted to bring closer EU history , diversity, values, mutual understanding and intercultural dialogue to youngest , for this reason EdUcade project goes to school.

<http://www.europeandecades.eu/>

<https://www.facebook.com/EdUcade-project->